

Resume: Mr. Mfundo Nomvungu

Re: Commissioner (Full-Time/ Part-Time)

I hereby apply for the position of Commissioner that is available at Commission for Gender and Equality. I strongly believe that I would be of great assistance, and this will also be a learning opportunity. I am a capable professional, energetic with unlimited knowledge, always willing to learn, with relevant skills for this vacant position, favorable qualities to be appointed as a commissioner. I am competent and highly effectively in executing responsibilities allocated to myself. I am an ambitious, goal orientated, driven, diligent, hardworking professional who has an ability to deal with challenges. I am able and willing to work under pressure to deliver and achieve set goals. I am a good team player; I am capable of building and maintaining good working relationships.

I am currently responsible for leading the monitoring, evaluation and learning team externally/ during onsite visits. I play an integral part in developing and implementing an M&E framework, methodologies and I coordinate all internal and external processes. I support and assist the team in developing M&E plans, tracking, monitoring, and evaluating results of all its governance, internal operations, external relations. I play a role in developing tools and gathering data. I am familiar with working with management and facilitate knowledge sharing or capacity building.

I am a versatile, passionate about social impact programmes, transformation, and motivated professional to make a difference by supporting our clients in their impact journeys. Lastly, I am passionate about finding creative ways to overcome challenges when it comes to creating impact and measuring and reporting on the impact, they create through their business activities.

I hope that this resume will find considerable attention that will result in a positive response.

Yours sincerely

Mfundo Nomvungu