Part 1: Steps prior to introduction of Bills

- 159. Submission of draft Bills as approved by Cabinet to Speaker and Chairperson of Council
- (1) A Cabinet member or Deputy Minister who intends introducing a Bill in the Assembly or who initiates the introduction of a Bill in the Council, must as soon as possible after the Bill has been approved by Cabinet, submit to the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Council -
- (a) the draft of the proposed Bill as approved by Cabinet, whether or not the draft has been legally or technically formalised as a proper draft Bill; and
 - (b) a memorandum explaining the objects of the proposed legislation.

Note:

It is highly desirable that portfolio and select committees be informed of the content of proposed legislation well before the introduction of the legislation in order to assist them in planning and developing views on the legislation.

- (2) The Speaker must refer the draft of the proposed Bill and the memorandum to the responsible portfolio committee and the Chairperson of the Council must refer the draft of the proposed Bill and the memorandum to the responsible select committee and the provincial legislatures in order -
- (a) to assist the committee and legislatures in planning their work; and
 - (b) to enable the committee members and legislatures to acquaint themselves with and to develop their positions with regard to the proposed legislation.
- (3) The Leader of Government Business in Parliament must liaise with Cabinet members to facilitate the implementation of this rule.

- (4) This rule does not apply to -
 - (a) a money Bill in respect of which the responsible Minister follows the special introductory procedure set out in Assembly rule 288; or
 - (b) any other Bills in respect of which premature disclosure of their contents may result in prejudice to the state or the general public.

Part 2: Classification of Bills

160. Referral of Bills to JTM

- (1) When a Bill is introduced it must without delay be referred to the JTM for classification in terms of this rule.
- (2) When a Bill introduced as a constitution amendment Bill is referred to the JTM, it must make a finding on whether -
 - (a) the Bill is in fact a constitution amendment Bill;
 - (b) the Bill is in terms of section 74 of the Constitution required to be passed by both Houses or only by the Assembly;
 - (c) the Bill or any of its provisions is in terms of section 74 required to be passed by the Assembly with a supporting vote of at least two thirds or with a supporting vote of at least 75 per cent of the members;
 - (d) the Bill or any of its provisions is in terms of section 74 (8) required to be approved by any province or provinces before it is passed by the Council; and
 - (e) the Bill is constitutionally and procedurally in order.
- (3) When a Bill introduced as a section 75 Bill is referred to the JTM, it must make a finding on whether the Bill-
 - (a) is in fact a section 75 Bill;
 - (b) includes any provisions to which the procedure prescribed in section 76 of the Constitution applies; and
 - (c) is constitutionally and procedurally in order.
- (4) When a Bill introduced as a section 76 Bill is referred to the JTM, it must make a finding on whether the Bill —

- (a) is in fact a section 76 Bill and if so, which of subsections (3), (4) or (5) of that section applies to the Bill;
 - (b) includes any provisions to which the procedure prescribed in section 75 applies; and
 - (c) is constitutionally and procedurally in order.
- (5) When a Bill introduced as a mixed section 75/76 Bill is referred to the JTM, it must make a finding on whether the Bill -
- (a) is in fact a mixed section 75/76 Bill; and
 - (b) is constitutionally and procedurally in order.
- (5A) The JTM must also make a finding whether a Bill pertains to customary law or customs of traditional communities in accordance with section 18(1) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003.

[Rule 160 (5A) inserted, 13 September 2005 (NA); 14 September 2005 (NCOP)]

- (6) Once it has made its findings, the JTM must classify the Bill as-
- (a) a constitution amendment Bill;
 - (b) a section 75 Bill; or
 - (c) a money Bill;
 - (d) a section 76 Bill;
 - (e) a mixed section 75/76 Bill; or
 - (f) a Bill that is constitutionally or procedurally out of order.

161. When Bills are out of order

- (1) A Bill is constitutionally out of order if it is in breach of —
- (a) section 73(2) or (4) of the Constitution, in that it was incorrectly introduced by an unauthorised person or committee;
 - (b) section 73(3), in that the Bill was incorrectly introduced in the wrong House;
 - (c) section 74 (4), in that it contains both constitutional amendments and other provisions unconnected with those constitutional amendments;
 - (d) section 74 (5), in that the procedure prescribed in that section as a precondition for the introduction of the Bill has not been complied with; or

(e) section 77 (2), of the Constitution.

[Rule 161 (1)(e), amended, 16 November 2006 (NA & NCOP)]

- (2) A Bill is procedurally out of order if -
- (a) the procedure prescribed in either the Assembly or Council rules as a precondition for the introduction of a Bill in the particular House has not been complied with;
 - (b) it is in breach of joint rule 172 in that it is a constitution amendment Bill that contains both constitutional amendments that may be passed by the Assembly alone and constitutional amendments that are required to be passed also by the Council;
 - (c) it is in breach of joint rule 193 in that it is a mixed section 75/76 Bill that was introduced in the Council; or
 - (d) it is in breach of joint rule 93 (b) in that a deadline set for the introduction of the Bill was not met and late introduction was not authorised
- (3) Except as provided for in subrule (1) the JTM may not make a finding on the constitutional validity of the contents of a Bill.

162. Consequence of classification of Bill as constitutionally or procedurally out of order

- (1) If the JTM classifies a Bill as constitutionally or procedurally out of order the Bill may not be proceeded with.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not prevent a Bill -
- (a) from being corrected and re-introduced, if it was found to be defective because of its contents; or
 - (b) from being re-introduced in accordance with the correct procedure, if it was found to be defective on a procedural point.

163. Reclassification of Bills

- (1) The JTM may change the classification -
- (a) of a mixed section 75/76 Bill to section 75 and section 76 Bills, if the Bill is split in terms of joint rule 194 (2)(a)(i), 196 (2)(a) or 200 (2) into separate section 75 and section 76 Bills;

- (b) of a mixed section 75/76 Bill to either a section 75 or a section 76 Bill, if the Bill is amended in terms of joint rule 194 (2)(a)(ii) to become a section 75 or a section 76 Bill; or
 - (c) of a section 75 or a section 76 Bill to a mixed section 75/76 Bill, or a section 75 Bill to a section 76 Bill, or a section 76 to a section 75 Bill, but only if -
 - (i) the Bill was introduced in the Assembly; and
 - (ii) the Bill is amended before Second Reading of the Bill in the Assembly to become a mixed section 75/76 Bill, a section 76 Bill or a section 75 Bill, as the case may be.
- (2) If the JTM reclassifies a Bill as a mixed section 75/76 Bill it must take a decision on the Bill as required by joint rule 191 (1)(a).
- (3) The JTM may change the classification of a Bill in respect of whether the Bill pertains to customary law or customs of traditional communities in accordance with section 18(1) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003, and amend its finding in terms of rule 160(5A).

[Rule 163(3) inserted, 13 September 2005 (NA); 14 September 2005 (NCOP)]

164. JTM may rule amendments constitutionally or procedurally out of order

- (1) At any time before a House decides on an amendment to a Bill, the JTM may —
 - (a) rule the amendment constitutionally or procedurally out of order in terms of joint rule 161, whether or not the amendment has been referred to the JTM; and
 - (b) prescribe an ad hoc procedure with regard to the Bill to meet any procedural complications arising from its ruling in terms of paragraph (a).
- (2) An amendment ruled out of order by the JTM may not be proceeded with.
- (3) The JTM must without delay report to both Houses on any decision taken in terms of subrule (1).

Part 3: Consideration of Bills by Joint Committees

165. Application

The provisions of this Part apply to Bills —

- (a) introduced in the Assembly that are referred before Second Reading of the Bill in the Assembly to a joint committee established in terms of joint rule 111 ;
- (b) introduced in the Council that are referred before the Council decides on the Bill to such a joint committee; or
- (c) recommitted to such a joint committee in terms of the Assembly or Council rules to consider amendments proposed in the House concerned.

166. Referral to joint committee

A Bill must be referred to a joint committee -

- (a) if the Assembly and the Council, by resolutions adopted in the Assembly and the Council, so decide, but if the Council is not sitting the Chairperson of the Council may decide on its behalf provided the Chairperson's decision is ratified at the next sitting of the Council; or
- (b) if, during a recess of both or one of the Houses, the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Council, acting jointly, so decide.

167. Process in committee

- (1) If the Bill has been published for public comment in terms of the Assembly or Council rules, the joint committee to which the Bill is referred may arrange its business in such a manner that interested persons and institutions have an opportunity to comment on the Bill.
- (2) If a Bill has not been published for public comment, and the committee considers public comment on the Bill to be necessary, it may by way of invitations, press statements, advertisements or in any other manner, invite the public to comment on the Bill.

- (3) The committee –
- (a) must enquire into the subject of the Bill and report on it to both the Assembly and the Council;
 - (b) if it is a Bill amending provisions of an Act, may seek the permission of the Houses to inquire into amending other provisions of that Act;
 - (c) may consult the member in charge of the Bill;
 - (d) may consult any other joint committee or any Assembly or Council committee that has a direct interest in the substance of the Bill;
 - (e) may consult the JTM on whether any amendments to the Bill proposed in the committee —
 - (i) may affect the classification of the Bill: or
 - (ii) may render the Bill constitutionally or procedurally out of order within the meaning of joint rule 161;
 - (f) may not propose an amendment that —
 - (i) changes the classification of the Bill except as provided for in subrule (4) and joint rule 163; or
 - (ii) renders the Bill constitutionally or procedurally out of order within the meaning of joint rule 161;
 - (g) may recommend approval or rejection of the Bill or present with its report an amended Bill or a redraft of the Bill; and
 - (h) must report to both Houses in accordance with joint rule 168.
 - (i) may report to the House in which the Bill was introduced if the Bill was classified as being subject to section 18(1) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003, only after 30 days have passed since the referral to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of Assembly Rule 332 and Council Rule 255.

[Rule 167(3)(i) inserted, 13 September 2005 (NA); 14 September 2005 (NCOP)]

- (4) The committee may propose an amendment that changes the classification of a section 75 or section 76 Bill to a mixed 75/76 Bill only if the JTM is of the view that the Bill as amended is unlikely to lead to unmanageable procedural complications.

Note:

Subrule (4) must be suspended until the proposed procedure for mixed Bills is implemented.

168. Joint committee's report

- (1) The joint committee to which a Bill is referred must table in both Houses —
 - (a) its report;
 - (b) the Bill that has been agreed on by it, or if it has not agreed on a Bill, the Bill as referred to it; and
 - (c) the supporting memorandum which was introduced with the Bill or, if the memorandum has been amended by the committee, the amended memorandum.

- (2) The joint committee to which a Bill is referred may report to the Houses only after the JTM has classified the Bill and has made its findings on the Bill.

- (3) In its report the committee -
 - (a) must state the JTM'S classification of and findings on the Bill;
 - (b) must state whether it recommends approval of the Bill with or without amendments, a redraft of the Bill, or rejection of the Bill;
 - (c) must specify each amendment if an amended Bill (other than a redraft of the Bill) was agreed on by it, and each amendment which was considered and, for a reason other than its being out of order, was rejected by it;
 - (d) must specify each amendment rejected by the committee if a redrafted Bill was agreed on by it;
 - (e) must, if it is not a unanimous report -
 - (i) specify in which respects there was not consensus; and
 - (ii) in addition to the majority report, express any views of a minority in the committee;
 - (f) may specify such details or information about its enquiry and any representations or evidence received or taken by it, as it may consider necessary for the purposes of the debate on the Bill in the Assembly and the Council;
 - (g) may report on any matter arising from its deliberations on the Bill but which is not necessarily related to the Bill; and

- (h) may recommend to the Assembly or the Council that any matter contained in the report be placed on the Order Paper of the Assembly or the Council for separate consideration either before or after the House considers the Bill.

169. Explanation of report

A co-chairperson or other member of the committee who tables the report in the Assembly or the Council on behalf of the committee, may, if the committee has so recommended in its report, address the Assembly or the Council in order to explain the report.

170. Referral of amendments proposed in a House to joint committee

- (1) If a Bill is recommitted to a joint committee in terms of the Assembly or Council rules to consider amendments placed on a House's Order Paper by members, the committee -
 - (a) may consider only those clauses of the Bill in respect of which amendments have been placed on the Order Paper and any consequential amendments that have to be effected;
 - (b) may consult the JTM on whether any of the amendments-
 - (i) affects the JTM's classification of the Bill; or
 - (ii) renders the Bill constitutionally or procedurally out of order within the meaning of joint rule 161;
 - (c) must mention in its report each amendment agreed on by the committee;
 - (d) must specify in the report each amendment placed on the Order Paper by the person in charge of the Bill but rejected by the committee;
 - (e) may not agree on any amendment that —
 - (i) changes the classification of the Bill except as provided for in subrule (3) and joint rule 163; or
 - (ii) renders the Bill constitutionally or procedurally out of order within the meaning of joint rule 161; and
 - (f) must table its report together with the Bill in both the Assembly and the Council.

- (2) Subrule (1)(d) applies only if the person in charge of the Bill is a Cabinet member or Deputy Minister.
- (3) The committee may agree on an amendment that changes the classification of a section 75 or section 76 Bill to a mixed 75/76 Bill only if the JTM is of the view that the Bill as amended is unlikely to lead to unmanageable procedural complications.

Note:

Subrule (3) must be suspended until the proposed procedure for mixed Bills is implemented.

171. Absence of consensus or report

- (1) If a joint committee fails to reach consensus or if it is unable to report on a Bill or on any amendment referred to it in terms of joint rule 170 —
 - (a) the joint committee must report to the Houses that it cannot reach consensus; or
 - (b) the chairpersons of the committee must inform the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Council that the committee was unable to reach consensus.
- (2) The Bill is then dealt with in terms of the rules of the respective Houses.

174. Constitutional amendments affecting specific provinces

- (1) A constitution amendment Bill referred to in section 74 (8) of the Constitution may not be passed by the Council unless the Bill, or the affected part of it, has been approved by the provincial legislature or legislatures of the province or provinces concerned.
- (2) If the whole Bill requires the approval of a specific provincial legislature or legislatures and that legislature or any or all of those legislatures refuse to grant such approval, the Bill lapses.
- (3) If only a part of the Bill requires the approval of a specific provincial legislature or legislatures and that legislature or any or all of those legislatures refuse to grant such approval, that part of the Bill lapses, but the rest of the Bill may be proceeded with subject to amendments needed to remove the affected part of the Bill.

- (d) either of or both the Houses reject the version of the Bill submitted to them in terms of joint rule 188(3).

Part 7: Procedure for mixed section 75/76 Bills

Note:

The procedure for mixed section 75/76 Bills suggested below, is based on the following premises:

- (1) A procedure can be provided only for mixed Bills introduced in the Assembly. Mixed Bills introduced in the Council are unconstitutional in that they contain section 75 provisions which cannot be introduced in the Council.
- (2) Mixed Bills bound to lead to procedural confusion should be identified and disallowed at an early stage in the Assembly proceedings. A “screening “ process for this purpose is essential.
- (3) Procedural confusion can only occur -
 - (a) in the event of disagreement between the Houses; in other words when mediation, special NA majorities, etc., come into play; or
 - (b) when the two voting procedures in the Council lead to different results (see par. 7 below).*
- (4) Proper consultation between the Houses throughout the process (through conferring committees and joint committees) may minimise the likelihood of disputes between the Houses.
- (5) The screening process should also apply to amendments.
- (6) The Assembly and the Council should be able to convert mixed Bills into pure section 75 or section 76 Bills when a disagreement or a likelihood of a disagreement between the Houses arises.
- (7) When a mixed Bill is referred to the Council, the Council should decide the Bill by a vote of provinces as well as by a vote of individual delegates.
- (8) If this is done there is no need for the Council to distinguish between section 75 and section 76 provisions in the Bill.
- (9) Provinces can give their mandates on the Bill as a whole.
- (10) If procedural complications arise because of a disagreement between the Houses or when the two voting procedures in the Council lead to different results, the mixed Bill should be split into separate section 75 and section 76 Bills and be dealt with accordingly.
- (11) Each Bill should be considered and decided separately the Council and then proceeded with in terms of the relevant rules applicable to section 75 and section 76 Bills respectively.

- (12) If a procedure for mixed section 75/76 Bills is politically acceptable, it would be advisable to refer the rules contained in this Part to the Constitutional Court for a ruling on their constitutionality. If the Court rules against this procedure, a constitutional amendment to authorise rules for such a procedure should be considered.

Note:

The Joint Rules Committee approved Part 7 but decided that implementation should be held in abeyance pending legal clarity on its validity.

191. Mixed section 75/76 Bills introduced in Assembly

- (1) (a) If a Bill introduced in the Assembly is classified or reclassified by the JTM as a mixed section 75/76 Bill, the JTM must decide whether the Bill may be proceeded with or ruled out of order.
- (b) In reaching its decision the JTM may require the appropriate Assembly portfolio and Council select committees to confer on the matter for advice.
- (2) A mixed section 75/76 Bill must be ruled out of order unless —
- (a) the Bill is of such a nature that a dispute between the Houses is unlikely to arise;
- (b) the Bill is drafted in such a way that it would be possible to isolate the provisions in the Bill to which section 75 and section 76, respectively, apply should it become necessary during the proceedings —
- (i) to split the Bill into two separate section 75 and section 76 Bills; or
- (ii) to amend the Bill in order that it becomes either a section 75 or a section 76 Bill; or
- (c) the Bill is for any other reason unlikely to lead to unmanageable procedural complications.
- (3) If the JTM cannot agree whether the Bill should be proceeded with or ruled out of order, the Bill must be regarded as being out of order.

192. Consequence of decision

- (1) A Bill ruled out of order may not be proceeded with in its format as a mixed section 75/76 Bill, but may be split into separate section 75 and section 76 Bills and reintroduced in the Assembly in terms of the Assembly rules.
- (2) If a Bill is not ruled out of order, it must be proceeded with in terms of the applicable Assembly rules, subject to joint rule 194.

193. Mixed section 75/76 Bills introduced in the Council

If a Bill introduced in the Council is classified by the JTM as a mixed section 75/76 Bill, the Bill may not be proceeded with, but that part of it that falls within section 76 (3) of the Constitution may be separated and reintroduced as a separate section 76 Bill in the Council in terms of the Council rules.

194. Assembly amendments to mixed section 75/76 Bills

- (1) An Assembly committee to which a mixed section 75/76 Bill may have been referred in terms of the Assembly rules may confer with the corresponding Council select committee before it agrees to any amendments proposed in it or referred to it.
- (2) If the committees have conferred but cannot agree on amendments proposed in or submitted to the Assembly committee, or if the Bill has been referred to a joint committee in terms of joint rule 166 or 170 and the joint committee cannot agree on amendments proposed in or referred to the joint committee, the Assembly may —
 - (a) instruct an Assembly committee -
 - (i) to split the Bill into separate section 75 and section 76 Bills; or
 - (ii) to amend the Bill in such a way that it may be reclassified as either a section 75 or a section 76 Bill;
 - (b) rule the Bill out of order in its format as a mixed 75/76 Bill, in which case joint rule 192(1) applies; or
 - (c) proceed with the Bill in its format as a mixed section 75/76 Bill.

- (3) The Assembly committee —
 - (a) must consult the person in charge of the Bill when carrying out an instruction in terms of subrule (2)(a); and
 - (b) may request the responsible Cabinet member or Deputy Minister to make a state law adviser and any departmental officials available to assist the committee in carrying out the instruction, if the Bill was initiated by the national executive.
- (4) A split or amended Bill in terms of subrule (2)(a)(i) or (ii) must, after reclassification by the JTM, be proceeded with in terms of the applicable Assembly rules for section 75 or section 76 Bills.

195. Referral to Council

If the Assembly approves the Second Reading of a mixed section 75/76 Bill the Secretary must without delay submit the Bill to the Chairperson of the Council to deal with the Bill in terms of the Council rules.

196. Council amendments to mixed section 75/76 Bills

- (1) A Council committee to which a mixed section 75/76 Bill may have been referred in terms of the Council rules may first confer with the appropriate Assembly committee before it agrees to any amendments proposed in it or referred to it.
- (2) If the committees have conferred but cannot agree on amendments proposed in or to the Council committee, or if the Bill has been referred to a joint committee in terms of joint rule 166 or 170 and the joint committee cannot agree on amendments proposed in or referred to the joint committee, the Council may -
 - (a) instruct a Council committee to split the Bill into separate section 75 and section 76 Bills; or
 - (b) proceed with the Bill in its format as a mixed section 75/76 Bill.

- (3) The Council committee -
 - (a) must consult the person in charge of the Bill when carrying out an instruction in terms of subrule (2)(a); and
 - (b) may request the responsible Cabinet member or Deputy Minister to make available a state law adviser and any departmental officials to assist the committee in carrying out the instruction, if the Bill was initiated by the national executive.

- (4) A split Bill in terms of subrule (2)(a), must after reclassification by the JTM be proceeded with in terms of the applicable Council rules for section 75 or section 76 Bills depending on its classification, provided that if the Bill is passed by the Council without amendments other than those technical adjustments necessary to effect the split, the Bill must nevertheless be referred to the Assembly as if it were a Bill amended by the Council.

197. Voting procedures in Council on mixed section 75/76 Bills

- (1) If the Council proceeds with the Bill in its format as a mixed section 75/76 Bill, the Bill as a whole must be decided by the votes of provinces and by the votes of individual members in accordance with the procedures set out in the Council rules.
- (2) The vote by provinces must be taken first.
- (3) Any amendment proposals to the Bill must be decided by the Council in accordance with the same procedure as set out in subrules (1) and (2).

198. Process if Council passes mixed section 75/76 Bill

If the Council passes a mixed section 75/76 Bill both by a vote of provinces and by a vote of individual delegates, the Secretary must without delay submit the Bill

- (a) to the President for assent if the Council has passed the Bill without amendments; or
- (b) to the Speaker if the Council has passed an amended Bill or proposed amendments to the Bill.

199. Assembly must consider Council amendments

- (1) If the Council amends a mixed section 75/76 Bill, the Assembly must consider the amended Bill or amendment proposals in terms of its own rules, and either pass the Bill or reject the Council's amendment Bill or amendment proposals.
- (2) If the Assembly passes the Council's amended Bill the Secretary must without delay submit the Bill to the President for assent.

200. Process if Houses disagree

- (1) A mixed section 75/76 Bill must be referred to the appropriate Assembly portfolio committee if —
 - (a) the Council rejects the Bill in terms of joint rule 197(1) either by a vote of Provinces or by a vote of individual members or by both; or
 - (b) the Assembly rejects the Council's amended Bill or amendment proposals in terms of joint rule 199(1).
- (2) The committee must split the Bill as previously passed by the Assembly into separate section 75 and section 76 Bills, and for this purpose joint rule 194(3) is applicable. When splitting the Bill the committee may not introduce amendments other than those technical amendments necessary to effect the split.
- (3) After the JTM has classified the split Bills —
 - (a) the committee must table the Bills in the Assembly;
 - (b) the Assembly must deal with the section 75 Bill in terms of joint rule 183(2), and
 - (c) the section 76 Bill must be referred to the Mediation Committee as if it is a Bill to which joint rule 133(1) applies, provided that the period referred to in joint rule 186(3) runs from the day on which the Bill was tabled in the Assembly in terms of paragraph (a) of this rule.
- (4) Any procedural complications may be referred to the Joint Rules Committee for resolution.

201. Ways of splitting Bills

- (1) If a mixed section 75/76 Bill is split in terms of these Rules, it may be done in the following ways:
 - (a) Amendment Bills: Split the amendment Bill into two separate amend Bills, the one containing all the amendments that must be dealt with in terms of section 75 and the other all amendments that must be dealt with in terms of section 76.
 - (b) Substantive Bills:
 - (i) Either split the Bill into two separate sub Bills, the one containing all the clauses that must be dealt with in terms of section 75 and the other all the clauses that must be dealt with in terms of section 76; or
 - (ii) delete either the clauses in the Bill that must be dealt with in terms of section 75 or those that must be dealt with in terms of section 76 and move the deleted clauses to a separate amendment Bill which amends the main Bill by re-inserting the deleted clauses.
- (2) If the subrule (1)(b)(ii) procedure is followed a House considering the Bills —
 - (a) must consider the two Bills together;
 - (b) must first decide the main Bill before it decides the amendment Bill;
 - (c) is regarded as having rejected the amendment Bill if it rejects the main Bill; and
 - (d) must make consequential adjustments to the amendment Bill if it passes amendments to the main Bill that affect the amendment Bill.

208. Defects that cannot be corrected

- (1) If a remitted Bill is either procedurally or substantively so defective that it cannot be corrected, the Assembly must consider rejection of the Bill.
- (2) If the Assembly rejects a remitted Bill, the Bill may not be proceeded with, but this subrule does not prevent a Bill of similar substance from being re-introduced.

Council procedure

- (2) If the Mediation Committee is unable to agree within three working days of the motion's referral to it, the motion lapses unless the Assembly again approves it but with a supporting vote of at least two thirds of its members.

229. Compliance with constitutional time limit

The Speaker and the Chairperson of the Council, acting jointly, may take such steps as are necessary to facilitate resolution of a motion within the time limit of 30 days as determined by section 216(3)(b) of the Constitution.

230. Renewal of parliamentary approval

If Parliament approves a decision to stop the transfer of funds to a province that decision may be renewed by Parliament for no more than 120 days at a time, following the process set out in joint rules 223 to 229.
